Case No. 3:17-cv-00939-WHA

DEFENDANTS UBER TECHNOLOGIES, INC. AND
OTTOMOTTO LLC'S AMENDED INITIAL DISCLOSURES

Judge: Honorable William H. Alsup

Trial Date: October 10, 2017

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26(a)(1), Defendants Uber Technologies, Inc. (“Uber”) and Ottomotto LLC (“Ottomotto”) (collectively, “Defendants”) hereby amend and supplement its initial disclosures to Plaintiff Waymo LLC.

Defendants provide these disclosures subject to and without waiving any applicable privilege, doctrine, or right, including without limitation the attorney-client privilege, the joint defense/common interest privilege, the work product doctrine, and all other rights and privileges recognized under the laws of the United States, the State of California, and all relevant jurisdictions. By these disclosures, Defendants do not concede the relevance or admissibility of any particular information. Defendants make these disclosures based on information currently available to them. Defendants reserve the right to amend or supplement these disclosures and to present additional evidence to support their defenses with any filing or during any proceeding in this action, including trial, in accordance with the Court’s Case Management Order (Dkt. 562).

A. INDIVIDUALS LIKELY TO HAVE DISCOVERABLE INFORMATION
[Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(i)]

Defendants identify the following individuals who may have discoverable information that Defendants may use to support their defenses in this case. Waymo¹ should contact any current or former employee, agent, or other representative of Defendants only through Defendants’ counsel of record, unless otherwise specified. Additionally, individuals described as having knowledge of the “Stroz due diligence for the Uber/Ottomotto acquisition” are noted with an asterisk (*) because these individuals would be used to support Defendants’ defenses in this case, or would testify about that subject, if and only if that subject is found not to be privileged.

² In view of the rapid pace of this litigation and the Court's order requiring initial disclosures by June 21, 2017, Defendants are listing certain outside counsel as potential witnesses out of an abundance of caution. Such outside counsel are indicated with †. Defendants expect to resolve, through resolution of pending privilege issues and discussions with opposing counsel and the Court, whether any of these potential witnesses will in fact be called as witnesses at trial.

Defendants believe that Waymo's current and former employees and consultants are likely to have knowledge of: (1) the design and development of Waymo's LiDAR and purported trade secrets, including but not limited to failures to protect the confidentiality of such purported trade secrets; (2) the '922, '464, and '936 patents ("the Asserted Patents"); (3) Waymo's analyses or plans concerning the ride-sharing market, including projections for revenue generation and profitability; (4) Waymo's delay in bringing this lawsuit and motivations for litigating against Defendants; (5) Waymo's practice of allowing competing side businesses; and (6) lack of damages or irreparable harm to Waymo. The identities of all such individuals are known to Waymo but not to Defendants as of the date of this disclosure.³ Defendants reserve the right to supplement this list as additional facts are disclosed in discovery.

Further, Defendants identify the following persons who may have knowledge of facts relevant to this suit:

1. Any custodian of records or other person who may be required to establish authenticity of documents;
2. Any and all persons identified by Waymo in its initial disclosures; and

³ As set forth in Defendants' motion to compel (Dkt. 687), Waymo has refused to respond to interrogatories or produce documents fundamental to Defendants' defenses, which Uber needs to proceed with depositions. To date, Waymo has produced only 975 documents in response to Defendants' first and second sets of requests for production, consisting of 162 document requests. If and when Waymo fulfills its interrogatory response and document production obligations, Defendants will supplement these disclosures based on information not currently known to Defendants.

3. Any and all persons whose depositions are taken, who provide written testimony in this action, or who contribute to any response to the parties' discovery requests.

Additionally, Defendants have retained and intend to retain expert witnesses to testify on its defenses, including non-misappropriation of Waymo's alleged trade secrets; the culture, customs, and practices in the autonomous vehicle space; non-infringement; invalidity; forensic investigations to locate the allegedly downloaded files; and lack of damages.

B. DOCUMENTS, ELECTRONICALLY STORED INFORMATION, AND TANGIBLE THINGS [Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(ii)]

Defendants identify the following categories of documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things in its possession, custody, or control that it may use to support its defenses, unless solely for impeachment:

- Documents concerning Defendants' autonomous vehicle program;
- Documents concerning Defendants' design and development of LiDAR;
- Documents concerning Defendants' efforts to commercialize autonomous vehicle technology;
- Drawings or photographs of Defendants' LiDAR;
- Prototypes (or components of prototypes) of Defendants' LiDAR;
- Documents concerning Defendants' hiring process, including hiring agreements;
- Documents concerning Uber's acquisition of Ottomotto;
- The Asserted Patents, their prosecution histories, and prior art to the Asserted Patents;
- Documents in the public domain relating to Waymo's purported trade secrets;
- Documents concerning third-party suppliers of LiDAR components; and
- Waymo's filings, submissions, applications, or certifications made to public entities pertaining to the use of lasers in autonomous vehicles.

To the extent the above-identified documents are within the possession, custody, or control of Defendants, such documents are generally located at Defendants' offices at 1455 Market Street, San Francisco, CA 94103.

Defendants' search for documents is ongoing, and Defendants reserve the right to

1 supplement this disclosure under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e)(1). Defendants may also
 2 rely on documents produced by any party and third party to this litigation, including Defendants
 3 themselves and Waymo.

4 Defendants reserve the right to object to the production of any documents described herein
 5 on any basis permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

6 C. COMPUTATION OF DAMAGES [Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(iii)]

7 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(C), Defendants may seek attorneys' fees and costs in 8 defending this action, but are unable at this time to estimate the amount.

9 D. INSURANCE AGREEMENTS [Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A)(iv)]

10 Defendants are currently unaware of any insurance contracts applicable to any claim in 11 this action.

12 CERTIFICATION

13 To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, formed after an inquiry that is 14 reasonable under the circumstances, this disclosure is complete and correct as of the date set forth
 15 below.
